

"Brilliant Statesman, Loyal Son of the Church and Martyr of the Faith"
Pope Pius XII

This is a biography of a great man, a truly Catholic man, a courageous man who gave his life for God and for country. This book gives an in-depth account of the life of Gabriel Garcia Moreno. A most excellent role model for our times. Possessing a keen perception of the ills that afflicted the times in which he lived, he drove himself to excel in all areas of his life for the improvement of his beloved country, Ecuador and the betterment of his native people. A gifted man spiritually and intellectually, he spent his life in a truly selfless way. It is not surprising that a man who so closely imitated Christ in his daily life would be found to be carrying next to his heart at the moment of his martyrdom "The Imitation of Christ". So great was this man, that on January 16, 1835, Our Lady of Good Success appeared to a Conceptionist sister, Mother Mariana de Jesus Torres, in Quito, Ecuador, over 250 years before his time, to predict his coming using these words:

"In the 19th Century, there will be a truly Catholic President, a man of character whom God, Our Lord, will give the palm of martyrdom on the square adjoining this convent. He will consecrate this Republic to the Sacred Heart of my Most Holy Son, and this consecration will sustain the Catholic Religion in the years that will follow, which will be ill-fated ones for the Church."
